

Office of the President

January 12, 2022

Daemen University
Students, Faculty and Staff

Dear Colleagues,

We continue to make great strides at our Amherst campus in repairing the damage to the Scotus Hall caused by the blizzard. Our dedicated team has been working nonstop on this important project. As is often the case with this type of work, though, our initial timeline